Irvington Breeding Stables

DR. P. W. FOOTE

Irvington, Ky.

Too much blow, and too little truth tires the public and no attention is paid such advertisements. Here is the high record made by my Stallions and Jacks in the two crops of colts that have come and I challenge the county to beat it, and following the admonition of St. Paul the proof is herein made.

Comanche Chief

The Percheron Stallion, "Comanche Chief" No. 63416, is a Dark Iron Gray, 6 years old, weight 1700 pounds. A magnificent horse, his colts being the best proof. While but few of them have yet been offered for sale, I will mention the purchase of a pair of his 4 months old fillies to Mr. C. D. Hardaway, Guston, Ky., for $220.00 cash. No mean price in a year of bad crops and tight money. Fee $12.50.

The Prime Minister

"The Prime Minister," Chestnut Stallion, 4 years old, 15½ hands. Stockings and Stripe. A natural saddle horse and invariable transmits the gait. I will give a written guarantee that a colt from him will show saddle gaits before it is a month old, matters not what its mother is. Fee $10.00.

Black Sampson

"Black Sampson," the big bone Taxpayer-Starlight Jack. Most of his mules are the big bone, heavy body kind, but the one bred, owned and exhibited by Mr. Alexander Meyer, Big Spring, Ky., at my 1915 colt show at Bewleyville revealed a type never seen here before—"the Black Sampson type."

The scales and tape measure scored this colt as follows: Weight, 500 pounds; height, 52 inches; girth, 54 inches; arms, 18 inches, ears, 27 inches, age, 119 days.

I will pay $125.00 cash for a mare mule, 4 months or under, that is sound and all right in every way, that surpasses this colt in weight and measurements.

Chicago's Pride

The Jack, "Chicago's Pride," 15½ hands, maintains his Ohio county reputation for high price mules at weaning time. Here is more proof: Mr. E. L. Bennett, Irvington, Ky., scoured this section last fall, buying weanling mules. He informs me that he purchased 18 mare mules and 9 horse mules—a total of 27—and that he paid the highest price of all to Mr. John Mercer, of Irvington, Ky., R. F. D. 2, for a mare mule colt. This mule was sired by "Chicago's Pride." Jack fee is $10.00. All colts to stand and suckle. Accidents, if any, at owner's risk. I ask your patronage and above record is my best claim. Farm 2½ miles South of Irvington.

Miss Evie Smith, of Constantine, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Miss Ruth Frank was the guest of Miss Cecil Sipes Sunday.

Miss Lula Carman, of Locust Hill, was the pleasant guest of her cousin, Miss

Hattie Carman Saturday.

Mrs. Gilbert Huffines has returned to her home in Illinois.

Miss Ozzie Davis has returned home after a visit in Guston and Evansville.

Saddle and Harness Stallion 6 years old, weight, 1075 lbs.

Brown Crest's dam, Figget No. 3171, by Chester Chief No. 1129, by Chester Dare No. 10. $10 to insure a living colt.

LOCOFOCUS

Large Black Jack with white points, over 15 hands high, fine bones and muscle and a quiet disposition and has proven to be a good breeder, made the last three seasons at the farm of Chesley D. Wilson, near Big Spring. Has a record of 52 living colts in one season.

The above stock will make the season at John Elder's new barn, near Hardinsburg. $10 to insure a living colt. $9 if paid in 30 days.
